

To satisfy the new requirements of the Taiwanese culture office Please complete the following steps

A representative of the company requesting certification must complete and sign the form.

Print it, sign it, notarize it and include it with your document.

The person who signs the form must also include a legible copy of his/her driver's license.

The signature on the driver's license must match the signature on the form.

Make sure that the driver license is not expired.

If the copy of driver license is not clear, the document will be rejected.

The letter of Authorization must be signed and notarized.

Taiwan Cultural Office will not accept to receive your document unless they receive with it your signed notarized letter of authorization and the copy of driver license.
